PREFACE

This manual summarizes pretrial criminal procedure in Indiana through December 2022. The volume covers information/indictment through interlocutory appeals. Also, you will find chapters on professional responsibility, fact investigation, and experts. For pretrial issues not covered in this publication, please consult:

Kerr, Criminal Procedure — Pretrial (West Indiana Practice Volume 16).

Amsterdam, Anthony G., trial manual 5 for the defense of criminal cases (ALI- ABA).

Acknowledgements

Previous editions of the IPDC pretrial manual were authored by Don Murphy, Jack Kenney (First Edition), Darren Bedwell (2nd -4th Editions) and Andrew Krull, Jack Kenney, Stacy Uliana, Paula Sites (5th Edition). The author of this edition wishes to thank Juli Byrne for her word processing expertise in formatting this manual, and for generating the table of contents.

Disclaimer

All information, procedures, checklists, and cases should be carefully reviewed and should only be a starting point for further investigation and study of current law and procedures. The Indiana Public Defender Council and the authors disclaim any and all responsibility or liability, which may be asserted or claimed arising from or claimed to have arisen from reliance upon the procedures and information or utilization of the checklists set forth in this manual by the attorney or non-attorney.
